

Vertex Dental

Acrylic Teeth

Vertex™ Quint teeth

Advantages of the Vertex™ teeth Quint:

- Excellent bonding characteristics with Vertex™ Denture Base Acrylics
- Wide range of models
- Available in A1 until D4 colour classification
- Innovative 5 layer concept
- Easy to grind with cervical consistent color ceramic effect
- Double cross linked and a high molecular weight

Vertex™ TCA

Vertex™ TCA is a cold-curing teeth coloured acrylic, which can be used for restorations to dentures and frames where an element must be renewed, repaired or permanently fixed. Available in 9 different shades: A2, A3, A3.5, B2, B3, C2, C3, D2, D3.

Vertex™ TCA can be used as well as temporary crown made by Dental technicians.

The following products are related to the Acrylic Teeth:

Vertex™ Quint shade guide

Shows the real life 16 available shades from A1 – D4.

Vertex™ Quint cabinet

This 8 tray solid Cabinet is made out of high quality wood with inlays for anteriors and posteriors.

Vertex™ Teeth grinder

Is specially meant to enlarge the contact surface of resin teeth.

Vertex™ Acrybond

Creates a chemical bonding between denture base acrylics and acrylic teeth.

Vertex-Dental B.V.

Johan van Oldenbarneveltlaan 62 | 3705 HJ Zeist
P.O. box 10 | 3700 AA Zeist | The Netherlands
Tel. +31 (0)30-69 76 749 | Fax +31 (0)30-69 55 188
info@vertex-dental.com | www.vertex-dental.com