

Ever considered working as a dental trainer?

Are you:

- An experienced dental technician?
- Passionate about dental?
- A skilled communicator?
- Done with working at the bench?
- Ready for a new challenge?
- Up to teaching others how to make the best dentures?

If you can check all the boxes, send us your résumé now! We, Vertex-Dental Asia (Singapore), are looking for a trainer for the Asia-Pacific region. You will give courses and trainings to dental technicians as well as basic trainings to our distributors' sales staffs throughout the region. Send your detailed CV, including your motivation and a recent photograph, to info.sg@vertex-dental.com.
